

BJ 17

The BJ 17 is a fine example of a classic form developed in the early 1800's. Originally it was designed for use as a workboat off Whitehall Street in New York Harbor. Their reputation for sea worthiness and ease of handling is legendary. The BJ 17, originally a "Whitehall Pulling Boat," was designed by Gary W. Mull using data from Howard Chapelle and the Smithsonian Institute.

Specifications

Length overall 16' 7"	Teak and mahogany trim
Beam 4' 8"	Full flotation
Sail area 130 Sq. Ft.	Schaefer marine gear
Weight 380 lbs.	Odyssey Sails
Fiberglass Hull	Spars by Sailing Supply

BASE PRICE _____

Optional Equipment

Jib Furling	145.00
Jiffy Reefing	90.00
Boat Cover	110.00

Specifications subject to change without notice.

BJ INDUSTRIES
35 N. Edison # 28
Reno, NV 89502
(702) 786-7808

DEALER: