Sailing is a skill, an art, a science. But, when you get right down to basics, all that really matters is that exciting combination of you, the wind, and a good boat. That's why Day Sailer I should be your choice for all around sailing enjoyment. She's a swift racer. She's a fine day cruiser. An ideal sloop for the larger family.

This is the original Day Sailer I designed for George O'Day! Over 10,000 of them are now sailing in the United States, supported by a strong national association with more than 100 fleets throughout North America.

These features have significantly contributed to the Day Sailer's popularity:

- High freeboard and sharp entry bow for dry sailing in all water conditions
- Cuddy cabin, providing generous storage and protection from elements
- Generous seating for 6 in cockpit
- Superb response, easy planing
- Foamed-in urethane to keep hull and mast afloat if capsized
- Stainless steel and aluminum hardware
- Hand laid fiberglass hull with synthetic core for quality and strength
- Trailers even behind a sub-compact car

For day cruising or racing, backed by proven performance, safety, style and reliability, catch a Day Sailer I. Ask us about a "test sail."
