The Sunfish "Olympic" has been styled to appeal particularly to the fast-moving sailing buff who frequents the regatta and racing circuit. With its colorful striping both fore and aft it has a distinctive look that sets it apart. A look that is further emphasized by its smart red, white and blue Dacron sail. Like all strictly one-design Sunfish, the Olympic model boasts the features that have made the AMF Alcorn name a symbol of quality with sailors the world over. Features such as hand layup fiberglass construction, foam flotation, Dacron sails, marine quality lines and fittings, self bailer, Philippine mahogany rudder and daggerboard, handy cockpit storage compartment. Be the first in your fleet to own a new Sunfish "Olympic" and enjoy the admiring looks of those who appreciate the finest styling as well as performance.
